Ethics and the Internet

Ethics

"The principles of conduct governing an individual or a group"

"The rules of conduct recognized in certain associations of departments of life

Ethics relates to the process for making decisions about right and wrong where the morality is not necessarily clear, typically internalised within a sector of society.

Moral

"Relating to human character or behaviour, considered good or bad"

Morals are what is generally accepted as being right or wrong and often externally imposed through laws

2 theories of ethics

Consequentialism - An act is judged on its outcomes

Deontology - An act is judged on its motivation

Optimized notes

Ethics

"The principles of conduct governing an individual or a group"

"The rules of conduct recognized in certain associations of departments of life

Moral

"Relating to human character or behaviour, considered good or bad"

2 theories of ethics

Consequentialism - An act is judged on its outcomes, John Stuart Mill

Deontology - An act is judged on its motivation